CHAIRMAN HOLLOWAY STATEMENT ON TODAY'S COUNTY BOARD ACTIONS

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Board Chairman Lee Holloway released the following statement after this morning's County Board meeting, which included actions on furlough days and tentative labor agreements for Milwaukee County employees:

“Supervisors took a number of difficult votes this morning that will have major impacts on both our employees as well as the services they provide to our constituents. I appreciate the County Executive's kind words for the Board and am pleased that he understands just how difficult these votes are.

“Having said that, high emotions remain on both sides of the issues facing Milwaukee County. I support all of the Supervisors on the Board, regardless of how they voted on the items before us today. It takes a great deal of courage for a Supervisor to take these votes. Going forward, I will work with all members of the County Board, as well as the County Executive, to overcome these challenges. Ideally, we will come out of this process with the most decent budget we possibly can.”
